

RESOURCE SHEFFIELD

February 4-6, 2011

Big & Small

Everything you need to know!
Please digest now so you're ready...

A weekend to explore the diversity found across new forms of church. Starting a church with a team of thirty can be a very different experience to starting from scratch with one or two others. This weekend tells the stories of a few churches and mission projects in Sheffield which together show how diverse both the process of starting out and sustaining what grows can be.

You'll have the opportunity to visit Uncut and City Base as well as hearing the stories of Christ Church Central, and Louise Yauil, a Church Army evangelist working in GP surgeries. Together we'll reflect on their theology and practice. They'll also be additional input from leading researchers in the field able to give a national perspective.

The weekend is being hosted by ACPI and The Sheffield Centre and being organised by Rachel Hall. If you have further questions please get in touch with Rachel on 07917731907.

The weekend takes place around west and central Sheffield.

If you have friends in Sheffield stay with them.

If not a cheap option is the Travelodge <http://www.travelodge.co.uk> and search for Sheffield central.

We can put some people up in the homes of people connected to the projects we'll be visiting. If you are interested in this type of B&B get in touch with Rachel by January 10th at the latest and we'll try and get that sorted for you. The cost of this is £25 for the weekend which we give as gifts to hosts.
