

Re:source - Creating Church in the Emerging Culture

Date: Saturday July 2

Venue: Custard Factory, Gibb Street, Birmingham (directions on www.custardfactory.com)

Cost: £10 (lunch not included)

Time: 10:30am - 4pm

Fresh expressions | Emerging church | Missional church | New Mission Movements... whatever you want to call them something's happening. God is beckoning the church into the future and maybe just maybe she is responding. A day of training, encouragement, inspiration and meeting others to include...

- Pall Singh - a visual meditative feast as East meets West, Asian meets alt worship
- Stories/postcards from the edges of what God is doing in a variety of emerging churches
- Andrew Jones (aka TallSkinnyKiwi) will present emergAnt - teaching on emergence and growth in new church movements; and Connectivity and Fuel - practical advice for ongoing mission - how to avoid drying up and getting isolated
- Jonny Baker and Andrew Grinnell - fresh worship, ritual, visuals and tunes

Who's the day for?

Anyone currently involved or wanting to get involved in fresh expressions of church, mission in the emerging culture, or church planting who wants to meet some others who share the same passion, and get a bit of encouragement and input.
