

PROOST

UNUSUAL SUSPECT'S

Are you 25 or under?

Are you a creative person in need of an outlet?

PROOST is looking for unknown creatives to produce work for its new download site. The new site will produce monthly downloads of creative resources for youth groups, churches and individuals.

PROOST produces 3 types of downloadable resource...

AUDIO VISUAL, RECORDED MUSIC and BOOKS.

We are looking for young unknown poets, writers, illustrators, animators, film makers, music producers, fine artists, cartoonists etc. to present us with their ideas for media for our download site. If we like the idea then you will be asked to make your piece of work. maybe a short film, a set of poems meditations or cartoons, a set of illustrations or music tracks... The idea/s you present to us will be geared towards helping people in their spiritual journey. They will have an 'earthy reality' to them not a 'churchy religiousness'.

If your work is selected to go on the site, you will be paid on a royalty basis.

There will also be a really great prize for the best piece of work produced by an UNUSUAL SUSPECT... watch this space for more details on that one!

At Greenbelt 2007 PROOST will be relaunching its website and we will use the event to promote and showcase the UNUSUAL SUSPECTS.

Send an outline of your idea/s and a brief biography to info@proost.co.uk
